September 3, 6:00 P.M.

Attending Board Members: Frank Davie, Chairman; Tom Nielsen, Vice-Chairman; Bob Dalley; Emily Neilson; Herman Nordbruch
Attending Assistants: Rick Peetz, Clerk; LaDawn Christensen, Treasurer
Attending Guests: Steve Shakespeare, Allen Cannon, Claudia Davis, Brian Davis, Jimmy Soltis, Marc Rose, Robert Hardy

A. Welcome, Prayer, and Pledge of Allegiance: Frank called the meeting to order. Bob offered the prayer, and Tom led the Pledge of Allegiance.

B. Pine Valley Overlay Zone Business:

1. Hagemeyer (rebuild) – Copies of the site plans and the completed Project Information Sheet, including details of the home plans, were distributed to the board prior to the meeting. Emily reviewed key points of the overlay zone, including roofing, slopes, and the outdoor lighting ordinance. Bob moved to recommend approval of a building permit to the county, with the amendment that no impact fees be charged. Herman seconded the motion, and all in favor.

2. Eric Nelson – Eric provided the site plans and completed the Project Information Sheet. After review, Bob approved recommending to the county a building permit, with the exception that it will be denied if the county planning commission rezones his property for commercial. Herman seconded, and all in favor.

C. August Meeting Minutes: Minutes were distributed to the board before the meeting. Bob proposed approval of the minutes, Herman seconded, and all were in favor.

D. Board Member Reports:

1. Pine Valley Activities (Frank): Mentioned a community Barn Dance on September 20th.

2. Traffic Report (Tom): Noted the summer traffic in the valley is down 30 to 50%, due to the fire.

3. Washington County Crime & Sheriff's Report (Herman): Noted after speaking to a local fire ranger, the campground is closed to vehicles and foot traffic, with the primary concern being safety due to falling trees and debris. The goal is to open the river walk to foot traffic next year.

   County crime indicators are average for this time of year, with no significant events in the county or the valley.

   Herman reported on Labor Day holiday coverage provided by the Sheriff's Office. Traffic volume was approximately one-third lower than that of Memorial Day weekend. On Saturday, the deputy had multiple public contacts; Sunday saw minimal traffic; and on Monday, five speeding stops and one nuisance call were reported. Herman recommended that the board discuss continuing the program next year, and the item will be added to the October agenda.

   Five County Report (Bob): Noted the Five Counties (Beaver, Garfield, Iron, Kane, and Washington) in southwest Utah. No report.

E. Community Watch -Tom & Gene Phillips: Tom reported a good turnout for the August meeting, which included presentations from Rick Albee and Michelle. One additional family signed up for the program in August.

F. Financial Report for August: To Be Presented at Next Meeting – Rick

Due to the early September meeting date, the August financial and treasurer's reports will be presented at the next meeting. He suggested moving all future meetings to the second Wednesday of each month so financial reports can be prepared without delay. It will be added to next month's agenda.

G. Citizen Requests Tom suggested posting agendas on the Nextdoor app. During the discussion, Claudia noted that the comments feature can be turned off. The board concluded that the agenda will be posted on the app in the future.

Bob moved to adjourn the meeting, Herman seconded, and all were in favor.

The next scheduled PVLAD meeting is scheduled for October 8, 2025.
