RESOLUTION NO. R-2022-2891

A RESOLUTION PROPOSING THE CREATION OF THE WESTERN FIRE SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT; AND OTHER RELATED MATTERS

WHEREAS, the Washington County Commission has determined that the public health, convenience, and necessity require the establishment of a special service district to be named Western Fire Special Service District ("District") to provide fire protection, emergency medical services, ambulance services, search and rescue services, and parks and recreation services, pursuant to the provisions of Article XI, Section 8 of the Utah Constitution and Utah Code Annotated, § 17D-1-201, et seq. (1953, as amended) (the "Act"); and

WHEREAS, all of the property and the citizens within the proposed boundary of the District will be benefited by the establishment of the District to provide fire protection, emergency medical services, ambulance services, search and rescue services, and parks and recreation services.

NOW, THEREFORE, at a regular meeting of the legislative body of Washington County, Utah, duly called, noticed, and held on the on January 18, 2022, upon motion duly made and seconded, it is unanimously resolved that:

1. The public health, convenience, and necessity require the establishment of a special service district to provide fire protection, emergency medical services, ambulance services, search and rescue services, and parks and recreation services to the property and the citizens within the proposed boundary of the District (see the attached map and description of the proposed service area boundary).

2. The name of the special service district shall be the Western Fire Special Service District.

3. The services to be provided by the District are fire protection, emergency medical services, ambulance services, search and rescue services, and parks and recreation services.

5. The County intends to create the District in accordance with the Act. The Washington County Commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed creation of the District on Tuesday, March 1, 2022, at 4:00 p.m., at the Washington County Commission Chambers in the Washington County Administration Building, located at 197 East Tabernacle, St. George, Utah.

6. The County will prepare and publish the notice of the County's adoption of this Resolution and of the aforementioned public hearing thereon, in accordance with the terms of the Act.

7. Before adopting a resolution to create the District, the County expects to enact a resolution to dissolve any special service district within the District boundaries that provides the same services that are proposed to be provided by the District.
