Fire Chief: Robert Hardy (excused)
Attending Guests: Brian Davis, Emily Nielson, Stacey Owens, Mark Owens, Frank Davie, Scott Dunkleman, Tom Neilsen

Welcome: Meeting called to order by Mary Esther.

Minutes from February 2023 Meeting: Bob approved the minutes, Herman seconded, and all were in favor.

Board Member Reports: Mary Ester mentioned the county commissioners sent an email and requested she reaches out and say that they appreciate the interest of anyone who applied for the interim SSD board. They received quite a few applications and a panel reviewed them based on location within the county to ensure each community was well represented. They looked at each applicant's experience and hoped it would be a good mix. Herman mentioned he, Bob, and Steve Shakespeare received an email that they would be on the interim board with Aaron Molden and Clint Hafen. No dates or further information were provided.

Fire Chief Report: Deputy Chief Tom Nielsen reported for Fire Chief Hardy. He mentioned station duties and daily tasks will be assigned to take pressure off leadership. They will assign subject experts to various duties and training.

Five EMS calls in Central for the month of February.

Brian asked the board if Engine 143 could be sold, as it is not being used or have a purpose. The board approved.

The deputy chief asked Mark Owens to put numbers together regarding the asphalt and concrete replacement in front of the fire station bays. The board wants it done as soon as possible. Mark provided a detailed explanation of what was required, the materials, and the time frame. He believes the project will be approximately $20 thousand dollars and believes it will not be more than that. Bob mentioned the project is in the budget and asked if the fire department leadership wanted this, and Tom said it was unanimous among the officers. Mark asked if the board wanted him to oversee the project and the board unanimously approved. The number of bids was discussed and the possible businesses that would be interested. Mark will return to the board with the bids and his recommendation.

Treasurer Report: Rick previously send the February financials to the board. Bob had one suggestion that Rick adjusts the results, to which Rick agreed. Bob approved the financials, and Herman seconded, all in favor.

Citizen Requests: None

The next scheduled PVSSD meeting will be on April 5, 2023.
