Board Member Reports:

Frank Davie, health related Pine Valley activities: September 18, Laura Bergeson is offering a class on making herbal medicine.

Allen Cannon, sheriff's office report: Allen had a conversation with Lt. Brock Bentley, the item discussed are as follows.

- Lt. Bentley had heard that some thought that the Sheriff's department were the ones that cancelled the holiday coverage that Pine Valley paid for in the past. Allen mentioned Pine Valley cancelled the contract and used that budget for the electronic speed signs.
    a. He confirmed that they felt some pressure to fill the requested time.
    b. They have 3-4 officers covering all the county on any specific shift.
    c. He is open to attending our board meeting should there be a need.
- Neighborhood Watch
    a. Would be worth looking into, said that several communities have successfully set up organizations.
    b. Camera to monitor traffic into and out of the valley, did agree that access to that information would be useful should a problem occur.
- Home Alarm Systems
    a. They do respond to all alarms that go off to determine what if anything is wrong.
- Using local social media site to report suspicious activity.

Bob Dalley, traffic report: Bob mentioned the traffic was down 20% year over year east bound after turning at the church, and 10% down year over year west bound. No other issues.

Herman Nordbroch, county crime report – Purgatory county bookings in the last 5 days was 53, which is probably average. Population is 260, maximum 550, and still limited due to Covid restriction requirements. Two report property crimes reported in Pine Valley since mid-June, a portable generator was stolen and teenage boys broke and vandalized an electronic gate.

Five crime watch signs have been posted. The board discussed replacing the small signs with larger signs.

Home Fire Alarms: Frank suggested a welcome packet to new homeowners with home fire alarm information included.

Pine Valley Dump: Ray Lindblom keeps it cleaned up. The board would like to thank him for his efforts. No other report.

Treasurer Report: Rick presented financial. Bob approved and Herman seconded.

Citizens Request: No requests.

Meeting adjourned.

The next scheduled PVLAD meeting will be October 6, 2021.
