B. Pine Valley Overlay Zone Business:

1. Sun Hill Development, Don Cox

2. Darryn Cox Home

Emily reviewed the Pine Valley Overlay with the submitters, noting that if county ordinances are more stringent, they take precedence over the guidelines for the Pine Valley Overlay Zone. She encouraged the submitters to read the county ordinances. She specifically noted that outdoor lighting should be shielded to minimize impact on neighbors and be dark sky friendly, roofing material and fencing can be up to six feet tall and non-obstructing. She recommended joining NextDoor and Community Watch.

Emily proposed recommending to the county the approval of a building permit for the Don Cox home. Frank seconded, and all were in favor.

She then proposed recommending the approval of a building permit for the Darryn Cox home. Frank seconded, and all were in favor.

Submitter paid their impact fees and received a receipt.

C. June Meeting Minutes: Frank proposed approval of the minutes, Emily seconded, and all in favor.

D. Board Member Reports:

1. Pine Valley Activities (Frank): Frank commented that the 4th of July celebration was well attended, up to 620 people. The fundraising dinner committee cancelled the annual August dinner.

2. Traffic Report (Tom): Herman asked if Rick had any traffic comments. Rick mentioned a drop in traffic due to the fire. According to the traffic report, 80% of the traffic was in compliance, which is 30 mph and below.

3. Washington County Crime & Sheriff's Report (Herman): Crime statistics, releases, and bookings are within the normal range, with no significant spikes or drops. Herman noted that he does not yet have statistics from the holiday weekend.

4. Five County Report (Bob): No report.

   Emily distributed the county's short-term rental updates as of June 2025. She noted that four additional homes are advertising as short-term rentals without licenses (none of which are in Pine Valley). Currently, seven homes in Pine Valley are listed and licensed as short-term rentals.

E. Community Watch (Tom & Gene Phillips): Gene reported that a class is being organized and is scheduled to take place in August.

F. GRAMA Request Charges – Action Item (Emily): Emily handed out the proposed updated GRAMA policy to the board. The proposed changes are that the district may charge for the time necessary for the independent contractor to retrieve and prepare requested documents at a proposed rate per hour after a certain time. The board discussed a fee of $25 an hour after the first hour. Emily recommended adopting the language that was handed out tonight to the board members, with the insertion of a $25 rate per hour after one hour. Frank seconded, and all were in favor.

G. Dumpster Signage (Frank): Moving to next month’s agenda.

H. Clerk Report (Rick): Rick reported interest transactions last month.

I. Treasurer Report (LaDawn): This item will be moved to next month’s agenda when a full quorum is present.

J. Citizen Requests:

A citizen raised concerns about homeowners' insurance and increased costs. Emily noted that during the previous week's County Planning Commission meeting, a commissioner discussed whether fire-resistant building materials should be mandatory in overlay zones and other buildings. She also mentioned that the legislature recently passed UT HB0048, which is intended to evaluate properties, insurance, and mitigation properly. Emily will provide further information at the next meeting.

Chief Hardy thanked the community for their incredible support.

The next scheduled PVLAD meeting is scheduled for August 6, 2025.
